THOUGHT Parson Sanders, Methodist, These folks I have been teaching, Would like perhaps to have a bit Of highly colored preaching, But lo! the soldiers of the church, In dismay fled the trenches, And let the colored brother preach To naught but empty benches.

If that M. E. Church matter was a joke it must have been of the Pennywitticism order.

Mr. STERLING will vote on the local option question the first Monday in August.

A FARMER advises that all the thistles in the county be cut now as they will soon begin to scatter their seed.

THE Maysville Band was at Aberdeen, this morning, to attend the funeral of Mr. James Hamer, who died on Saturday.

WORK on the Kentucky Central extension from Paris to Winchester will begin in two weeks, and be completed in less than 160 days.

MR. W. C. PENNYWITT was in Maysville yesterday. He came, probably, to hear the sermon of the Rev. M. W. Taylor, D.D., at the Third street M. E. Church.

THE Maysville City Mills are at work grinding new wheat this week. It is of very fine quality and it is thought makes as good flour as was ever offered in this city.

MESSRS. A. Finch & Co., received to-day a large quantity of the new wheat. It is of a very fine quality and was bought by Messrs. Finch & Co., for one dollar a bushel.

A FIRE, supposed to have been kindled by an incendiary, was discovered at Weedon's livery stable, corner of Market and Fourth streets, about seven o'clock on Sunday morning. It was put out before any damage was done.

THE steamer City of Portsmouth has been sold to the Newport Ferry Company. Her machinery will be placed in a new ferry-boat. The Portsmouth will however remain in the Chilo trade until another boat is procured in her place, which, Capt. Holloway says, will be about ten days.

THE jail committee has been notified by Judge Wall to meet at his office to-morrow morning, to determine whether to lower the sewer at the jail lot or to build it on another part of the same lot. Either can be done, and it will not therefore be necessary to buy property adjoining as erroneously stated.

TWENTY-THREE more bodies were recovered Saturday from the wreck of the ill-fated Scioto. The excitement is unabated and thousands of persons are on the ground as the sad search for the lost goes on. No definite conclusion has yet been reached as to the number of lives destroyed by the disaster.

$5,000,000.

Why will anyone travel without accident insurance, when a $3,000 policy can be had for 25 cents a day? Mr. M. F. Marsh, agent of the Travelers' Accident Insurance Company, will issue policies for any length of time from one day to one year. The Travelers' is the oldest and strongest accident insurance companies doing business. It has already paid over $5,000,000 of accident claims and now adjusts and pays on an average $60,000, a month. Yearly policies are the cheapest, a $1,000, policy will cost bakers, boot-makers, cigar-makers, printers &c., $7.50 a year, and brick-layers, carpenters, painters &c., $10, a year. Call on M. F. Marsh, Court street, and insure in the Travelers'.

THE deserters from the "Amen Corner" should be court martialled.

Out Among Our Indiana Cousins.

BROOKSVILLE, INDIANA, July 5, 1882.

Ed. Bulletin: By all the laws that bind people together there are more and stronger ties cementing the interests of Kentucky and Indiana, than any other two states.

It has been a profound mystery to me why the emigration from Kentucky to Indiana, seldom returned till now. A similarity of soil, topography of the country habits of the people are so much alike if any preference be given Indiana extends freer hospitalities with a more earnest hand, accounts for her prosperity and expanded growth.

This town of Brooksville in Franklin county was settled in 1819, and has continued to keep in advance. Located at the junction of the East and West Forks of White Water River it presents a city under and upon a hill with wide valleys and accessible hills under the highest cultivation. It is here the 4th of July was celebrated in the olden time style. Societies, Fire Companies, Sunday schools, Labor Associations &c., all joined in procession headed with bands of music and marched to dinner. Dancing, sporting and speaking and a most glorious old 4th it was.

The bright, clean and cosy homes of Brooksville and vicinity are the prominent features that makes this town a center of convivial souls. We were happy at the cheerful home of A. B. Line and his charming family who after the ceremonies of the 4th gave a reception to which all the ministers and good families of this neighborhood attended.

Every other individual you meet here comes from Kentucky or traces his or their lineage to a southern source.

The Court House here is a magnificent structure, the frescoing of the walls and ceiling by a native of the valley, excels any other frescoing for beauty and delicacy of touch. Its too bad, such genius and talent should remain dormant and unappreciated.

Four years ago while court was in session the roof of this court building came crashing down on the heads of the court and lawyers, who escaped without loss of life, and in the reconstruction, this new improvement was substituted.

We, that, is my better half, are much indebted to the judges, lawyers and city official for conspicuous attentions. We were fascinated with the plain and unassuming kindness of the ladies, especially with the brilliant conversational power of Messrs. Lawyer Haller, and others. The courtesies of each and all of other managers of this celebration will ever be remembered by

COUSIN BILL.

THE sermon by the Rev. M. W. Taylor, colored, at the Third street M. E. Church, yesterday morning, is said to have been a very interesting and able one. The brethren who failed to hear it missed a treat.
